

St Peter and St Paul, Scarning – Churchyard Register

June 2019

This register is based on the record prepared in 1980 by Scarning WI as part of the Norfolk Federation of Women's Institute's project to record Norfolk's churchyards. Since 1980 more of the headstones have become illegible and some grave markers are no longer in place. Brackets indicate where the text is illegible.

The numbers refer to the churchyard plan.

There is a separate section at the end of the register recording the names of people whose ashes have been interred in the garden of remembrance against the south wall of the church.
